

SAVERS ARE WINNERS!

It is very interesting to observe enthusiastic savers. We watch them as they come regularly to the bank to make their deposits. There is on their faces the smile that is peculiar to winners.

Their glory is not alone in the amount they have saved: they know that it is not always easy to save and are proud to have succeeded.

And then there is the fascination of growth! Only those who have really saved know the pleasure of watching a savings account grow.

A growing savings account is something to be proud of!

4 per cent interest paid on savings.

The Bank of Rockingham

M. W. McRae President Dr. A. C. Everett, Vice-Pres.
B. F. Reynolds, Cashier

Open till 6 o'clock P. M. on Saturdays.

PERSONAL

Phone the POST-DISPATCH (182) your personal items.

Mrs. A. A. Williams. Mrs. Vernon Dowless and young Miss Elizabeth Austin spent last week with Claude Williams.

David O'Brien, who has been home at Ellerbe for sometime, left today for Flint, Mich., where he holds a responsible position with the Buick Motor Car Co.

Mr. J. H. Hasty and daughters, Misses Maggie and Onie, of Danville, Va., came Sunday morning for a week's visit to friends and relatives in the city.

Mrs. F. M. Lyon, Mrs. McRae and daughter, Miss Mary McRae, who were joined in Wadesboro by Mrs. J. B. Lyon, left Monday for Hendersonville, where they will be for sometime.

Need any visiting cards? The POST-DISPATCH job department can print you cards within the hour after order is placed. They are neat, and are a good substitute for the more expensive engraved cards.

Promptness is an important item in the matter of placing an order for stationery. The POST-DISPATCH prides itself upon the quickness with which all job orders are turned out. Let us figure on that next job of stationery.

W. E. Thomas, Jr., has located in Rockingham for the practice of law. He secured his license just before entering the service; he was overseas 12 months. His friends are pleased that he has decided to locate here.

There will be no Sunday school or service held at the Episcopal church next Sunday.

Horace Moore opens his new garage at the Rockets next Monday. Read his advertisement on page 7.

Mr. C. E. Ashworth and son, C. E. Jr., left Monday for New York to visit his mother, who is 87 years old; she is enjoying good health.

Little Miss Sarah Fowlkes, daughter of Dr. J. I. Fowlkes, of Hamlet, fell on Thursday of last week here and broke both bones of her left wrist. She is spending the summer with her uncle, M. H. Fowlkes.

The engagement of Miss Jane Stanback, of Fayetteville, to Harvey Merrick Haywood was announced last week, the wedding to be in October. Miss Stanback has often visited in Rockingham.

Rev. Leon M. Hall is assisting Rev. J. C. D. Strowd in a ten days' revival at Tabernacle Church, near Gibson, going last Monday.

Dr. L. J. Coppedge came from Rosedale, Miss., to Montreat last Saturday to become resident physician at the mountain resort.

The revival scheduled to begin at Marks Creek August 11th, has been changed to Aug. 15th. Rev. Coppedge will be assisted by Rev. H. M. Pressley, of Charlotte.

S. Biggs drug store

Ed. N. Keller is now with the Calvine Mills, at Charlotte.

"A Tale of Two Cities" at the Star next Monday and Tuesday.

Born, the 20th to Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Dabbs, a son, Bernie Thomas.

Lumberton beat the Roberdel team at the Fair Grounds here Wednesday 9-1.

County Commissioners will hold their regular monthly meeting next Monday.

Miss Essie Clark, of the "Central" force, spent the week-end at her home in Laurinburg.

Mrs. J. W. Hailey and two children came Monday from Gastonia to spend ten days with her sisters.

Mrs. M. M. Dunn and young son, of Wilson, came Sunday to spend some weeks with Mrs. J. A. Dunn.

Eugene Payne will go to Asheville Saturday to spend a week with his family who are at 157 Church st., Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Threadgill spent the past week at Norlina and Norwood, returning Wednesday.

W. S. Thomas is a good gardener. He today presented the paper with two new sweet potatoes from his garden that weighed three-quarters of a pound each.

Miss Minnie Garrett left on Tuesday of last week to attend a house-party at Fernandina, Florida, as the guest of Miss Louise Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Everett and Sarah and John, Jr., returned Wednesday from a 3,200-mile motor trip. The farthest point North touched was Quebec, Canada.

At the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning the second of a series of subjects, entitled "National Perils", will be discussed. The theme will be the Fourth Commandment.

H. C. Watson left tonight for Rochester to join his family and visit his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Chalk. The party will then go to the "Thousand Islands" for an outing, and Mr. Watson and wife will return here in about two weeks.

We note from the Rock Hill Herald that Rev. J. M. McKenzie died in that town on Sunday. He leaves a wife and six children. He was 43 years old, and had been a Baptist minister for 18 years; he was native of Scotland. Mr. McKenzie had many friends in Rockingham county who will be grieved to learn of his death.

L. G. FOX DRUG CO.
and all good drug stores.

SOCIAL

(Contributed)

One of the largest house-parties of the year is now in progress at the club at Ledbetter's Pond. It began last Monday and will last till next Monday morning. Tonight (Thursday) the house-party is having a dance at Jackson Springs. Boating, fishing, swimming, dancing, auto parties, combined with plenty of good things to eat, make the party a grand success.

Each gentleman had the privilege of having one girl. The chaperones are Mrs. Geo. P. Entwistle, Mrs. W. L. Scales and young John Entwistle.

Composing the house-party are: Wm. C. Leak and Miss Octavia Scales; Don Phillips and Miss Mary Entwistle; Minor Hinson and Miss Emma Gray Ledbetter; William Dockery and Miss Jennie Parsons; George Entwistle, Jr., and Miss Berta West; Alex Monroe and Miss Louise Moore, of Dillon; Watt Parsons and Miss Mary Wilson, of Greensboro, Clifford Steele and Miss Vashti White, of Lumberton; James Garrett and Miss Pat Ashcraft, of Monroe, Wm. Harry Entwistle and Miss Jean Ashcraft, of Monroe; Robert Steele, 3rd, and Miss Eleanor Townsend, of Bennettsville; John Scales and Miss Ruth Harrison; W. L. Scales, Jr., and Miss Mae Taylor, of Thomasville, Ga.; Robert Stansill and Miss Rosa Parsons; John W. Cole.

Mrs. William Little Steele and daughter, Maude Moore Steele, have returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Pittsboro.

Miss Alice West, of Kinston, is the guest of Misses Lizzie and Jamie Cole.

Mrs. Abe Aronson has returned from two weeks spent with friends in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wall have returned from Blowing Rock.

Mrs. Tom Parsons and children, of Greensboro, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Little Steele.

Mrs. Fred. Bynum entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday; her guests were Mesdames Jake Hinson, A. G. Corpening, J. M. Ledbetter and Miss Kathryn McDonald.

Mrs. Ada Morrison Nuttall, of Charlotte, is the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison for a few days this week.

Mrs. John Morrison entertained two tables of bridge at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of her house-visitor, Mrs. Ada Morrison Nuttall, of Charlotte. Delicious pineapple cream and caramel cake were served. Enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Morrison were: the honoree, Mrs. Nuttall, Mesdames Walter L. Parsons, Cornelius Waddell, of Cheraw, Rufus Howard, of Savannah, T. L. McRae, Ellis Thomas, W. R. Jones, A. L. McDonald.

Messrs. Will McRae and Lacy McNair, who have been spending two weeks in western North Carolina, have returned to the city.

Mrs. Walter L. Parsons has returned from Raleigh, whither she went to spend ten days with her parents.

Mrs. A. L. McDonald has as her house-guest, her mother, Mrs. W. C. McMackin, and Mrs. John A. Chase, of Florence. Mrs. Chase returned to her home Tuesday morning. Mrs. McMackin will remain for sometime in Rockingham.

Miss Mary Goodram, of Newnan, Ga., arrived in the city Thursday morning to visit Mrs. John Armistead, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Goodram and Mildred, will return to their home in Newnan, Ga., Friday.

Mrs. Josephine Bailey, who has been quite sick in New York city has arrived in Rockingham and will spend some time here with relatives and friends, recuperating; she is at present with her sister, Mrs. Geo. S. Steele.

Mrs. John Armistead was hostess at a most delightful Sewing Party Thursday morning honoring her house-visitors, Mrs. Tom Goodram and Miss Mary Goodram, of Newnan, Ga. The hostess served delicious chicken sandwiches and tea. Invited to this affair were: Mrs. Tom Good-ram and Miss Mary Goodram, honorees, Mesdames H. L. Ledbetter, H. D. Ledbetter, Walter L. Parsons, T. A. Covington, W. L. Steele, Jr., Geo. Steele, Eleanor Covington, F. W. and T. C. Leak, J. C. Morrison, Ada Morrison Nuttall, A. L. McDonald and guest, Mrs. W. C. McMackin.

Mr. S. S. Steele spent the week-end with his family, who is visiting in Mt. Airy, in Surry county, with the sister of Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Schoticki.

DRECO

The famous root and herbal remedy for sluggish liver, biliousness, indigestion, rheumatism, constipation and sick headaches.

Notice of Sale by Commissioner.

North Carolina, Richmond County.

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon the undersigned commissioner by judgment of the Superior court of Richmond county, North Carolina, in the special proceedings entitled A. R. McPhail, Adm. of Toney Cole deceased et al. vs. Jim Covington Cole et al. I the said commissioner, will on Aug. 30th, 1920 at 11 o'clock a. m. on the premises hereinafter described, offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash subject to confirmation of the court, the following described lands to wit:

Lying in the aforesaid county and state and in Marks creek township, in the eastern edge of the town of Hamlet, bounded as follows: Beginning at a point in the S. A. L. Ry. right of way where the same intersects the old Green Pond Road, and fifty feet from the center of the main line on the North side of S. A. L. Ry. and runs in a westerly direction parallel with said right of way about 160 ft. to an iron stake, T. F. Boyd's corner, thence N. 50 1-2 W. 1749 ft. to a stake, thence S. 70 E. 100 ft. to a stake, thence N. 52 1-4 W. to a stake in the Southern edge of the old Laurel Hill road, thence in an Easterly direction along said road about 179 ft. to a small plum bush in front of Milton Allen's House, thence N. 40 1-4 E. 221.76 ft. to a stake, then N. 13 1-2 E. 718 ft. to a stake then N. 19 3-4 E. to Marks creek, then up Marks creek to a branch above the old green pond road, then up said branch to a gum at its head, then S. 40 W. to and with the Green Pond Road 6.50 chs., thence as said road in a Southerly direction to the right of way of the S. A. L. Ry., the beginning.

Excepting certain lots set out in Original Judgment for the said land rendered at the Jan. Term 1920. This land will be offered in about ten parcels.

This July 27th, 1920.

A. R. McPhail, Commissioner.

Sale will begin at Toney Cole old house.

IT will pay you to get our prices before you order
SALE BILLS

Not Much Progress.

"At an early age he was thrown on his own resources."

"And now he's a millionaire. Think of that!"

"Oh, he doesn't deserve much credit. His resources at the time were several millions."

Round About Way.

"I see where an aviator contrived to have the last word with his wife."

"How on earth did he do it?"

"He didn't exactly do it on earth."

"Not?"

"He rose 1,000 feet in the air and dropped her a message."

Conventional Verdict.

"The fair defendant confessed that she shot her husband."

"Yet the jury acquitted her?"

"Yes. It seems the jurors were all conservative men and hated to break a precedent."

Helpful Hint.

He (just engaged)—Darling, I simply can't kiss you enough.

She (practically)—Well, why waste any time in talking about it?

During the Spat.

Naggs—You are a burden to me.

Mrs. Naggs—And you are a beast.

Naggs—Yes, that's it exactly—I am a beast of burden.

VERY OLD-FASHIONED.

"I'll go to this musical comedy with you if you are sure the chorus will be properly clad," said the model young man.

"Have no fears as to that. I can assure you that this show was produced by a man who has some regard for the proprieties."

"Good!"

"Yes. He won't stand for bare legs. If a chorus girl won't wear tights she can't work for him."

Undoubtedly.

"Yes," observed the party who occasionally thinks aloud, "any man would."

"Any man would what?" queried the female with the ingrown curiosity.

"Would rather feel his oats than his corns," explained the noisy thinker.

Conflicting Evidence.

Harker—Since spraining his wrist last week, Omar tells me he has lost his sense of touch.

Parker—That's queer. He tried to touch me for $10 this morning.

OF COURSE.

Knicker—Why did Mrs. Henpeck speak in such a rasping voice to her husband?

Bocker—She was simply filing her answer.

Hay and Gas.

"A horse or motor does not fall to score," quoth Farmer Allen.

"One swallows money by the bale, the other by the gallon."

Seems Fair Enough.

"Would you die for your country?"

"Yes, I would," answered the patriotic citizen, "and if I'm ever called on to make such a sacrifice I hope the fact that I don't know a single stanza of the national anthem will not be held against me."

Domestic Criticisms.

His Wife—How forgetful you are, John! Everything I say to you seems to go in at one ear and out at the other.

Her Husband—Yes, and everything you hear goes in at both ears and out at your mouth.

Naturally.

"Now, Johnnie," queried the teacher, "can you tell me the size of a bird-shot?"

"Yes, ma'am," replied little Johnnie Wise. "It's the same size as the bird before it was shot."

Foolish Fellow.

"Would you be angry if I asked you for a kiss?" queried the bachelor.

"You bet I would," replied the modern maid. "The idea of a man wasting so much valuable time in asking for what can be had for the taking!"

A Suggestive Slap.

"You are my silvery toned belle," said Sentimental Sammie.

"Huh!" rejoined Practical Pauline. "What is the use of having a bell if you don't ring it?"

LOCAL NEED.

Visitor—I suppose you have something laid aside for a rainy day?

Farmer—Not in this part of the country. What we want is something to see us through a drought.

Time as a Shoemaker.

Time will heal all things, they say. But the saying is not true:

It heals some things every day—But it will not heal a shoe.

The Exception.

"As an employee of the government," remarked the pompous citizen, "I suppose it is up to you to do your duty."

"Not so you can notice it," replied the custom officer. "I am here to collect it. See?"

Wrong Diagnosis.

Omar—Miss Hazel tells me she has blue blood in her veins.

Almece—She's mistaken. She has it only in her mind.

Visitor—I suppose you have something laid aside for a rainy day?

Farmer—Not in this part of the country. What we want is something to see us through a drought.

Time as a Shoemaker.

Time will heal all things, they say. But the saying is not true:

It heals some things every day—But it will not heal a shoe.

The Exception.

"As an employee of the government," remarked the pompous citizen, "I suppose it is up to you to do your duty."

"Not so you can notice it," replied the custom officer. "I am here to collect it. See?"

Wrong Diagnosis.

Omar—Miss Hazel tells me she has blue blood in her veins.

Almece—She's mistaken. She has it only in her mind.

Visitor—I suppose you have something laid aside for a rainy day?

Farmer—Not in this part of the country. What we want is something to see us through a drought.

Time as a Shoemaker.

Time will heal all things, they say. But the saying is not true:

It heals some things every day—But it will not heal a shoe.

The Exception.

"As an employee of the government," remarked the pompous citizen, "I suppose it is up to you to do your duty."

"Not so you can notice it," replied the custom officer. "I am here to collect it. See?"

Wrong Diagnosis.

Omar—Miss Hazel tells me she has blue blood in her veins.

Almece—She's mistaken. She has it only in her mind.

Visitor—I suppose you have something laid aside for a rainy day?

Farmer—Not in this part of the country. What we want is something to see us through a drought.

Time as a Shoemaker.

Time will heal all things, they say. But the saying is not true:

It heals some things every day—But it will not heal a shoe.

The Exception.

"As an employee of the government," remarked the pompous citizen, "I suppose it is up to you to do your duty."

"Not so you can notice it," replied the custom officer. "I am here to collect it. See?"

Wrong Diagnosis.

Omar—Miss Hazel tells me she has blue blood in her veins.

Almece—She's mistaken. She has it only in her mind.

Visitor—I suppose you have something laid aside for a rainy day?

Farmer—Not in this part of the country. What we want is something to see us through a drought.

Time as a Shoemaker.

Time will heal all things, they say. But the saying is not true:

It heals some things every day—But it will not heal a shoe.

The Exception.

"As an employee of the government," remarked the pompous citizen, "I suppose it is up to you to do your duty."

"Not so you can notice it," replied the custom officer. "I am here to collect it. See?"

Wrong Diagnosis.

Omar—Miss Hazel tells me she has blue blood in her veins.

Almece—She's mistaken. She has it only in her mind.

Visitor—I suppose you have something laid aside for a rainy day?

Farmer—Not in this part of the country. What we want is something to see us through a drought.

Report of the Condition of the BANK OF ELLERBE

As filed with the Corporation Commission at the close of business June 30th, 1920.

| LIABILITIES | | RESOURCES | |
|---|--------------|---|--------------|
| Capital stock paid in | $10,000.00 | Loans and discounts | $225,446.88 |
| Surplus fund | 10,000.00 | Overdrafts secured | $478.36 |
| Undivided profits, less current expenses & taxes paid | 5,922.19 | unsecured | $ 57.10 |
| Notes and Bills Rediscounted | 20,405.20 | U. S. and Liberty Bonds | 2,200.00 |
| Bills Payable | 10,000.00 | Banking House $2900.00; Furniture and Fixtures $2577.73 | 5,477.73 |
| Deposits subject to check | 150,254.85 | Cash in vault and net amounts due from Banks, Bankers | |
| Time certificates of deposit | 50,140.15 | Trust Companies | 24,982.51 |
| Cashier's checks outstanding | 2,278.69 | Checks for clearing | 358.50 |
| | $259,001.08 | | $259,001.08 |

The above shows the bank to be in a healthy condition. We invite your business, and assure you that every consideration will be given you. 4 per cent paid on time certificates of deposit, compounded quarterly.

BANK OF ELLERBE

J. R. WALL, President B. B. FARLOW, Active Vice President
PRINCE O'BRIEN, Cashier.